

Egmond aan Zee, September the 3th 2016

New players added to the Finder Darts Masters 2017 players field

Since today, 3 more names have been added to the Finder Darts Masters 2017 player list. These three players qualified through the Champions League of Darts tournament, a special event that allows players of member organization of the Dutch Darts Bond to play for a place at the Finder Darts Masters.

The Champions League of Darts 2017 has been played and the champions of this year are known after five exciting finals. A total of 5 tournament to qualify for the Finder Darts Masters 2018 (for men, ladies and junior players) plus participation in the Winmau World Masters in English Bridlington.

The winner of the girls tournament received a ticket for the Winmau World Masters and the champion of the boys up to 14 wins and VIP package to visit the Finder Darts Masters 2017.

In the men's tournament the final was between Rick Hofstra and Jeffrey Stigter. Rick with all the experience on world stages, he played Lakeside and the world stage of Zuiderduin.

It was an exciting final over best of 3 sets won by Rick Hofstra in two sets. In the first set, Rick made the difference in the fifth and final leg to win this set by 3-2.

In the second set Jeffrey Stigter took a 2-0 lead but Rick managed to fight back to 2-2 and now against the odds, he also won the decider to win the match with 2-0 in sets.

The title of the ladies was for Marjolein Noijens. In her final against Aletta Wajer Marjolein was 1-0 down but won the next 3 to make 3-1.

Now Aletta came back and even was 4-3 in the lead and only one leg away from victory.

Marjolein was able to recover and won the two remaining legs to place for the Finder Darts Masters 2017.

Ramon Leferink will compete in the Finder Darts Masters Youth event this year. He had an amazing come back after 4-1 down to Lars Plaisier who was one leg away from the title. But a strong come back of Ramon, he won 4 legs in a row and won the title of the junior tournament with 5-4

Lerena Rietbergen won the girls event in an exciting final against Kyana Frauenfelder. Kyana missed too many doubles in this match and so she gave the match. Lerena eventually won the fifth and final leg and won the starting ticket for participation in the Winmau World Masters.

Pim Bijnen can prepare for a very beautiful month December. Pim won the boys up to 14 tournament. He won the finale against Sytze Terpstra with 3-1 and for this achievement, Pim received a VIP package for the Finder Darts Masters held in Hotel Zuiderduin on 8, 9 and 10 December.

In addition to these prizes, there were also two hotel packages for players and players who did not pass the first round of the tournament or women's tournament. These players were allowed to sign up for a B final.

Nico van Os won the men B final with 3-0 from Kevin Wensink and Anita was in the ladies the best in her match against Larissa Span

On the picture from left to right; Gerard Elderenbosch - Organization Finder Darts Masters, Marjolijn Noijens (Champion Ladies), Tim Oosterbroek, Chairman of the Dutch Darts Bond, Rick Hofstra (Men's Champion), Richard Nan, Organization Finder Darts Masters and Junior Champion Junior Ramon Leferink

More information about all the games played today can be found at www.clod.nl

More information about ticket sales or packages deals for the Finder Darts Masters or participants in the Finder Darts Masters 2017 can be found at www.findermasters.nl